UNION CITY ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater
Fairest of Shrines,
May lasting glory
Forever be thine.
Crowned with laurels of virtue,
Decked in garlands so bright,
We carry the banners
Of the green and the white
We carry the banners
Of the green and the white.

Ever onward you struggle
Til the goal has been gained,
And we as descendants
Bear aloft that fair name,
So rejoice in thy glory
Praises to you we sing,
Dear Union City
May thy fame never dim.
Dear Union City
May thy fame never dim.

Dedication

To our class advisors, Mrs. Baldwin and Miss Inman, we the Senior Class of 1951, dedicate this Anvil in deep and heartfelt appreciation for their help and loyalty throughout our high school years.

John C. Jenkins

Members of the Class of 1951:

It is a fact that those who teach add much to their lives from daily association with boys and girls. Hope, ambition, eager expectation color the lives of young people. This contact with youth gives a vital quality to work which in itself is often drudgery to the point of exhaustion.

By the same token my work with you during the past twelve years has brought me unexpected rewards for which I am truly thankful. Through your appreciation and eager interest my work with you has been a great satisfaction.

That your future days be glorious ones, is the sincere wish of your Principal.

Class Prophecy

Who's Who in '71

Have you seen the super duper pig farm out on R. D. 2? It is run by Hubert Blystone and his hired man, Robert Kuczaj.

Also located on Route 2 is a garage called "Kimmy's Kar Kare." Emmett tears the cars apart while one of his best mechanics, June Brown, tries to put them back together.

Dolores Beezub and Barbara Gregory are now missionaries. Their latest assignment is converting the natives of South Africa.

Donald Taylor is our new LOCO truant officer. He enjoys punishing the kids for his own mistakes.

Cecil Miller now has his own hillbilly band called the "Miller Moonshiners."

Doris Rhodes and Beverly Weilacher run the famous Lonely Hearts Club in New York City. Their best customer is no other than Jim Pratt.

Claude Lupton is the owner of a new store in town. He calls it "Lupton's Ladies' Lingerie." His latest model is Esther Williams.

Mrs. Clair McWilliams (former Janet Magee) has just finished her long awaited basketball team. She is now the mother of five boys.

Martin Tarbell is the new owner of the Times-Enterprise. He has Ronald Miller employed as his copy boy.

Rose Shade and Jean Chapin are instructors of nurses at the John Hopkins Hospital. They are working under the supervision of Paul Harrison, the best doctor and surgeon in the state.

A surprise wedding took place on June 4th, when Lewis Hellyer of Hellyer's Hardware Store took his private secretary, Connie Kowalski, as his bride. "O Promise Me" and other well known selections were sung by Jimmy Cosilla. He caused quite a disturbance when he forgot the words to one of the songs and started singing "Show Me the Way to Go Home."

Ernest Anderson and Neylon Bartholme are now on their way to Alaska to sell refrigerators.

Dorothy Middleton has taken the place of our former librarian, Miss Monroe, and Ted LeSuer has volunteered to be her assistant.

Class Prophecy

Bob Edwards has taken up the profession of wrestling under the name of Gorgeous George, with Dick Gray acting as his manager.

Lorraine Chundrlek has finally become Hollywood's most famous actress. Her latest husband is the well known comedian, Terry McGahen.

Betty Coe and Eleanor Parker are giving dancing lessons at Betty's home, nights after work. If you can't dance, why not learn how?

Neil Alford is now married to the new owner of Chapin's store, Janet Soety. They have chosen Virginia Kosik as one of their models.

Mario Lanza, the great opera star, has been selected to play the leading role in John Gregor's latest opera, "Mister Fire Bug." (It's a hot show.)

Donna Hordusky and Marian Gregory have opened a fashion shop for girls. They are located across from the high school and their prices fit your budget.

Jokes

By the time you swear you're his Shivering and sighing,
And he says his passion is
Heavenly, undying;
Lady, make a note of this,
One of you is lying.

Miss Smiley: Take this sentence.
Let the cow be taken to the pasture!
What mood?

Paul Harrison: The cow.

Janet Fisk: Don't you like my voice?

Cerutti: Janet, I have played on the black keys, and I have played on the white keys—but you sing in the cracks.

Rose: I was reading a book today called "The Most Important Demand of the American People."

Jim Cosilla: Gee whiz, where did they get my name?

Mr. Kimmy: Son I never kissed a girl until I met your mother, will you be able to say the same to your son?

Emmett: Sure, but not with such a straight face.

Mac: Come, come, give me the answer, please.

Dick Gray: I can't say it but it's on the tip of my tongue.

Jim Pratt: For goodness sakes, don't swallow it, it's arsenic!

Mrs. Baldwin: State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the U. S. in any given year.

Janet Magee: 1492—none.

Miss Smiley: Cecil, this essay on "My Mother" is the same as Ronald's.

Cecil: Well, why shouldn't it be?
We have the same mother.

Mac: What is the most outstanding thing which Chemistry has given to the world?

Sonny Thorne: Blondes.

The young man sneaked up behind her, covered her eyes with his hands, and announced: I'm going to kiss you if you can't tell who this is in three guesses.

June Brown: George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln.

Ginny Whittaker: I've been asked to get married plenty of times.

Bob Kuczaj: Who asked you?

Ginny: My mother.

John: So you taught your wife
how to play poker?

Tom: Yes, it was a swell idea!
Last night I won back nearly all of my salary.

Speaker: A bride wears white as a symbol of happiness, for her wedding day is the most joyful day of her life.

Joker: And why do men wear
black?

Mr. Martin: What do you mean by bringing my daughter home at 3 o'clock in the morning?

Bob Johnson: Well sir, I have to be at work at 7.

Row Two—Olen Seidler, Kenneth Merkle, Norman Troyer, Lowell Hamilton, Richard Brown, Howard Phelps, Keith Williams, Billy Whitaker, Theron Earll, Mr. Henry.

This year the Junior High Basketball Team was under the direction of Mr. Henry.

The Little Bears played a total of nine games winning none of them. However, this record is not to be taken too seriously because this year was the first time many of these boys had played on a team. There is some excellent material in the group and a much improved team is expected next year.

Senior Cheerleaders

This year we welcomed Sally Turner and Sarah Pfister to our ranks. We all want to thank the student body for their co-operation at the games and at the pep meetings.

With the help of the student body the cheerleaders of the future years will be able to carry on successfully. You are what makes them!

Junior High Cheerleaders

Basketball King and Queen

This year a new system of voting was introduced for the election of the Basketball Queen. Four girls who had shown the most interest in the games were chosen as candidates by the Senior Cheerleaders. The candidates for King were the six Senior class basketball players. The attendants were chosen by their respective cheerleaders on the same basis. Voting was done by means of identical cans in the halls with one penny equal to one vote. All went very well and when the final penny was counted the results produced our lovely Queen, Donna Hordusky and our handsome King, Jim Pratt. Their attendants were as follows:

7th grade	Janice Carroll and Alan Sexton
8th grade	Thelma Laird and Norman Troyer
9th grade	Elaine Forbes and DeWitt Dean
10th grade	Donna Brown and Bob Whittaker
11th grade	Janet Martin and Bruce Pieper

P. T. A. Activities

The Union City Parent-Teacher's Association Officers:

PRESIDENT	Margaret Sexton
VICE PRESIDENT	Helen Lyons
SECRETARY	Noma Michael
TREASURER	Millie Fisk

We have had a most interesting year with excellent speakers, good topics and educational demonstrations. Splendid co-operation was obtained from the committee men and women, the members, teachers, and the students, and we are very grateful for this.

Our "January Thaw," the community get-together, under the capable management of Mabel Michael, was a great success both financially and socially.

The Toxoid Clinic, which was in charge of Mrs. Pluskota, Mrs. Bowman, and Dr. Ledger, was sponsored by the Association. We are very proud that we were able to assist them in this worthwhile work.

The Junior-Senior Banquet in May, held at the Baptist Church, was served by the Parent-Teacher's Association. Thelma Thorne, general chairman, made this a delightful occasion, one to long be remembered.

The one regrettable happening of our year was the resignation of our former president, Alice Crandall, due to ill health. Margaret Sexton assumed the presidency and Helen Lyons was elected vice-president, and both have proven to be very fine leaders.

Our program for the year included the following:

Our Future School	Raymond V. Hall, Architect
Our Child and His Adjustment to the Future	Marshall Fisher, Superintendent of Schools in Titusville
Round Table Discussion of our New School	William Crandall
Future Farmers Demonstration	Omar Menoher
The School and Our Child's Physical Development	Lee Brant
Our Child and Foundation for Enjoyment of Music	A Concert by Albert Cerutti Noma Michel, Secretary

Annual Cafeteria Report

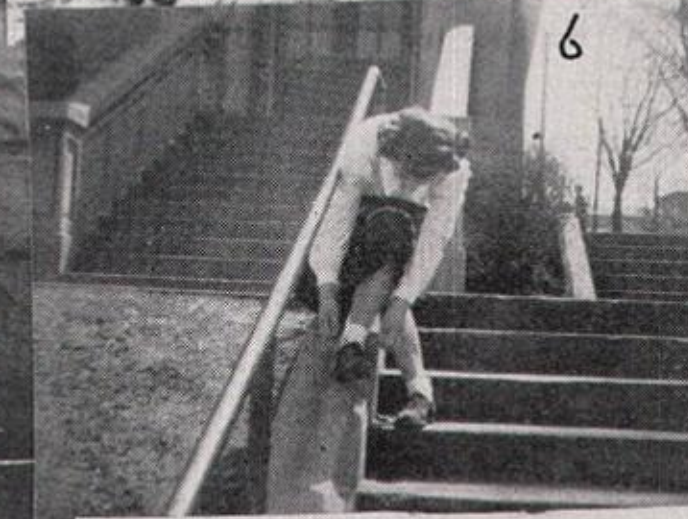

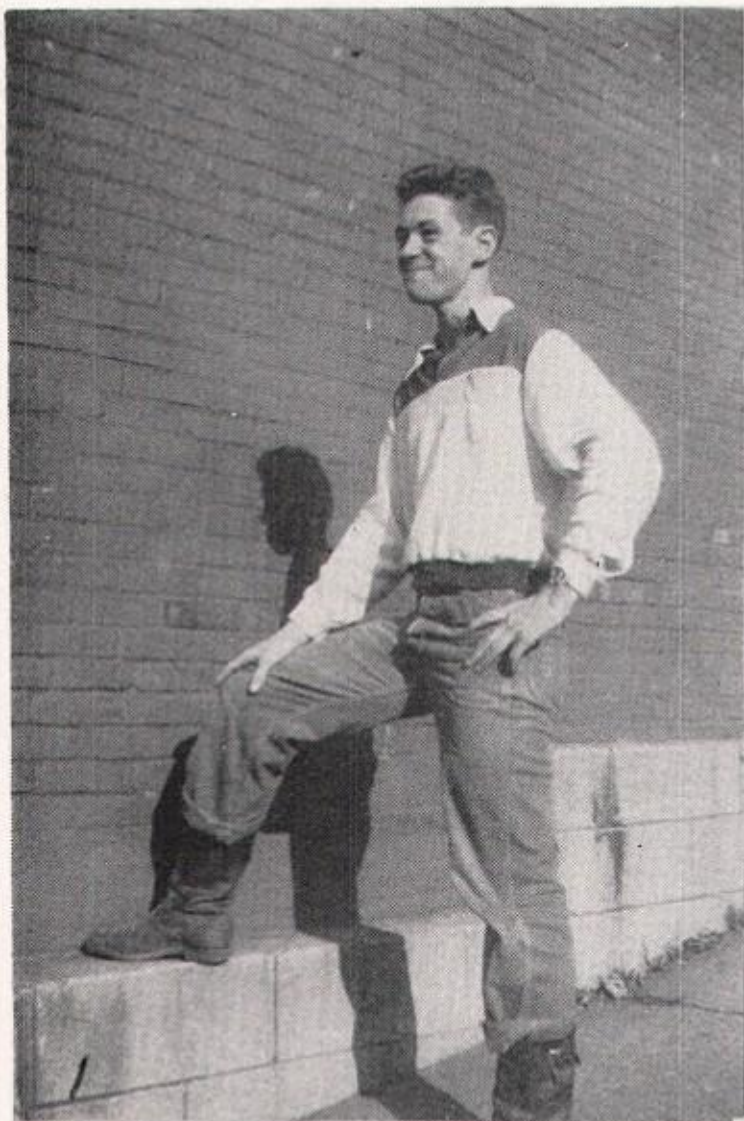

The cafeteria, in its second year, is now serving an average of 300 students.

Our very capable staff consists of: Mrs. Betty Sturdevant, Mrs. Prudence Clough, Mrs. Geneva Maryott, and Mrs. Gladys Proper.

Those very generously donating their time to help are: Mrs. Gertrude Wilkins, Mrs. Vi Wiggers, and Mrs. Rulaf Young.

We saw Emmett without Betty, Bob without Juanita, or Tommy Layden without his grin.

Doris were a boulevard instead of Rhodes, Irma were a room instead of a Hall, or if Rose were sun instead of Shade.

Bob Kuczaj let his crewcut grow out, if Joyce Combs got her driver's license and Carole Turner accepted a ride.

Janet Magee attended afternoon classes, Janet Soety resigned as Senior class president, and Jim Cosilla made it to school one whole week without being late.

Dolores Beezub stopped giggling, June Brown stopped flirting, and Virginia Kozik stopped being so friendly.

Mrs. Baldwin stopped joking, Mr. Palmer stopped ringing the tardy bell, and Mrs. Yankosky stopped policing cafeteria.

The Seniors and Juniors stopped arguing, Mrs. Wilsted stopped giving home-work, and Mr. Jenkins gave us the day after the prom off.
